Title: ALLIANT ACTION;
AOT-DT-VIOLENT CRIMES

Synopsis: To document asset reporting.

Details: On 1/26/2005, a source not in a position to testify, provided information regarding a protest group identified as Alliant Action.

The source advised that following the weekly Wednesday morning protest, [redacted] was heard preaching that because the group is not receiving any media attention and is not, therefore, attracting new members the group must do something to garner attention.

[redacted] suggested that the group needed to occupy and take over the ATK facility for maximum effect. Others in the group stated that Alliant Action must create a significant event. Marv Davidoff, another protestor who was present, stated that corporations only understand violence.

The source advised that no specific actions were discussed however, given the apparent desire to escalate matters ATK is very concerned by the statements.
