Zoe-

First off, congratulations on getting a story that has pretty much been the most talked about story since I've been on the council.

I'm wondering if I can ask a favor of you. The photo posted on the story is about three years old which is common for the Strib, but in this case I'm having people see the story and see me in the photo and they are insisting I was there because they see me in the photo. I realize you're the writer, not the photo editor but the photo contradicts the story so I'm wondering if it's possible to get that changed?
