All I can tell you is that lawyers are still talking. There's nothing more we can offer at this point.

OK -- Did AEG pay that bill?

Thanks for that. That is the calculation of reimbursable expenses directly attributable to the event.

There's a couple of references.

-- A Jan. 7, 2020 email from Jeff Johnson, the head of the Minneapolis Convention Center

-- A Jan. 5, 2020 email from Mark Ruff to Johnson.

OK; thanks.

One other thing: The documents we were sent talk of the city sending a bill to AEG back in January for $208,000; why that amount?

This is all the City is saying at this time.

OK; thanks.

But reimbursement from whom, the Trump campaign or AEG?

Nothing has concluded yet and the City is still in discussions. The City does expect reimbursement of venue-related expenses.

Hi Mike,

I will look into that now.

Casper Hill
City of Minneapolis --

We had received more than a thousand pages of documents from the city related to President Trump's rally last fall in Minneapolis, and the efforts by the city to seek reimbursement of its costs associated with the event.

I wanted to ask: Has the city received any reimbursement, either from AEG or the Trump campaign?
Was a bill submitted to the Trump campaign?
Was a bill submitted to AEG? Is the city still pursuing a reimbursement?

Thanks in advance.
