We put a moratorium on all Huawei and Futurewei grants/contracts/gifts back in August.

Dave,

We made the decision back in November to not renew an ongoing research agreement with Huawei for another 3 years. When we made that decision we also found several gifts that had been received from Huawei and we stopped accepting new gifts from them at that time.

For those of you who previously accepted Huawei research funding or gifts, have you changed your institutional position in your engagement with them given the indictments issued last week?
